Planning for Power Advertising - Anand Halve 2005-10-04

This book is a step-by-step guide to producing a sound foundation for advertising: one that will serve as the springboard to inspire powerful creative expression. Rich in cases from the evolving Indian context, Planning for Power Advertising offers an understanding of how strategic advertising is created. It takes the reader through cases and analyses of what worked or did not work in the marketplace. Anand Halve involves the reader throughout in exercises with Action Points at the end of most chapters—an approach that brings alive the concepts within, and helps readers discover the theory in practice. For advertising professionals, this is a manual to create a robust advertising brief. For students of advertising and marketing, Planning for Power Advertising is a simulation exercise from which they will learn how to apply the principles that will help them in their future careers. And for professionals in areas related to advertising—such as media, event management and PR—this book provides an insight into how the strategic underpinning of advertising is built.

Canadian Winter Driver's Handbook Edition 2 - Ron and Eric Battiston 2011-01-10

The Bible for winter driving based on millions of miles of driving on snow and ice. This handbook will greatly improve your winter driving skills and reduce your chances of death or injury. The information is clear and concise and unvarnished. The Authors are from Northern Ontario where winter driving is a requirement for survival. The first edition was published in 2009 and this is the second edition published in January 2011. It contains even more winter driving secrets and techniques. The objective of the handbook is to greatly reduce the carnage on our highways. Every day 8 Canadians are killed and 560 injured on our roads. In the USA over 40,000 are killed annually. This is the best investment any driver can make if they drive in winter conditions!
